

1     sometime, or maybe first, if possible.

2             THE CHAIRMAN: Very well, jsut a moment.

3             Delegate Carson, would you take the copy of
4     R&P-2, Section 11 and follow the Chair and let me
5     understand whether this would be your amendment?

6             In line 46 Strike the words "presentment or;"
7     in line 47, strike the words, "in the land or naval"
8     in line 48, strike the words "forces or"; change the word
9     "when" to "while," and in line 49, strike "in time of war
10    or public danger."

11            DELEGATE CARSON: That is correct, Mr. Chairman.
12    That is our amendment.

13            THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Byrnes, what is the 14    import of your amendment?

15            DELEGATE BYRNES: That is why I arose, sir.

16            On line 45, we would strike out, "capital or 17    otherwise infamous crime," and substitute in lieu thereof,
18    "felony," and we would delete all of lines 47, 48, and
19    49 and substitute nothing for it.

20            THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair thinks that the 21    better procedure to follow and the quicker would be
